Students and schools continue to have unequal recovery from pandemic learning losses, which exacerbated existing inequities in opportunity by race, income, geography, and other identities. We urge the legislature to continue to invest in culturally responsive learning acceleration targeting students who are furthest from educational justice.

In the 2024 short legislative session, we remain focused on the importance of effective student transitions so that students leave high school with the knowledge and skills necessary to pursue postsecondary credentials. Specifically we seek to:

- ▶ Ensure that school systems are set up to support students as they transition to high school, and from high school to postsecondary
- ▶ Remove barriers to accessing financial aid for which students already qualify
- ▶ Enhance opportunities for mentorship and advising
